Exhibitor Terms & Conditions

Acceptance of Exhibitors

Although your company may sign up as an exhibitor, USAAA will review all products and it will be the sole discretion of USAAA to determine whether your products or services exhibited will be accepted to exhibit for the conference. If your company is not accepted by USAAA, you will be notified immediately and you will receive a refund at that time. If you plan on exhibiting any medical device, these items will be reviewed by USAAA. It is the sole discretion of USAAA to accept or reject these items to be exhibited at the conference. All applications accepted by USAAA are subject to the conditions and requirements contained in the in this agreement.

All exhibit booths must remain open for the entire duration of the convention. Exceptions must be approved by USAAA prior to the conference. Any exhibit space not occupied by 10:00am on Friday, October 1, 2010 is also subject to reassignment or resale by USAAA, unless prior approval is obtained in writing from USAAA.

Electrical or other mechanical apparatus must be muffled for noise and positioned so as not to interfere with other exhibits. X-ray equipment may not be operated. Volatile or flammable oils, gasses, unprotected picture film, other explosive flammable matter or material, or any substance prohibited by City or State laws or insurance carriers are not permitted on the premises.

Exhibitors must surrender space occupied by them in the same condition it was in at the commencement of occupation. Exhibitors or their representatives shall not injure or deface the walls, columns, floors or furniture of the exhibit facilities. All property destroyed or damaged by the exhibitor must be replaced in its original condition by the exhibitor at his or her own expense. The exhibitor shall be liable for all property damaged.

Liability

Insurance and liability are the full and sole responsibility of the exhibitor. Proof of liability insurance is required from all exhibitors. Neither the US Autism & Asperger Association, Inc., nor any of its officers, employees or representatives, nor the owners, employees or representatives of The Hilton St. Louis Airport Hotel shall be responsible for injury, loss or damage that may occur to exhibitor's property prior to, during, or subsequent to the exhibition period, provided such injury, loss, or damage is not caused by the negligence or willful act of one or more of the aforementioned parties. The Hilton St. Louis Airport Hotel and US Autism & Asperger Association, Inc. will exercise reasonable care for the protection of the exhibitor's materials and displays. Security personnel will monitor the exhibit area during the hours the exhibit is not open to the public; but this precaution shall not be construed to be in any way an assumption of obligation or duty by the US Autism & Asperger Association, Inc. with respect to the protection of the property of the exhibitors. Exhibitors, by accepting space and making application for space, acknowledge the above terms and expressly release US Autism & Asperger Association, Inc. from any and all claims for such loss, damage or injury. US Autism & Asperger Association, Inc. will not be liable for the fulfillment of this agreement due to any of the following causes: by reason of the building being destroyed by fire, acts of God, strikes, the authority of law, or for any other causes beyond US Autism & Asperger Association's control.

Advertising

All advertisements are accepted and published on the representation of the advertiser and its agency that they are authorized to publish the entire contents thereof and that, to the best of their knowledge and belief, all statements made therein are true. The advertiser and the agency agree to hold the publisher harmless from any and all claims arising out of advertising published. Publication of articles, announcements, or acceptance of advertisements by US Autism & Asperger Association, Inc. does not imply endorsement by USAAA. USAAA reserves the right to reject any advertisement or copy that USAAA, for any reason, deems unsuitable for publication in any association publication.

Marketing of conference. Exhibitor shall vigorously promote this event through its customer base and other resources. All other pre-conference marketing and promotion is at the discretion of US Autism & Asperger Association, Inc.
